[dropcap style="font-size: 60px; color: #A02F2F;"]A[/dropcap]s the number of subscribers to Bluestone Magazine continues to grow, we plan to bring more exclusive, subscriber-only events to south-west Victoria.

An evening with acclaimed Australian author Helen Garner, in conversation with Bluestone co-editor Carol Altmann on Thursday April 21 at Blarney Books & Art, Port Fairy, is our first such event. (Subscribers have first access to the limited 60 tickets – any remaining tickets will then be offered to the general public.)

This exclusive event is a one-off opportunity to hear and meet Helen in the south-west, as she will be doing very little public promotion for the release of her new book, Everywhere I Look, (to be released in late March).

We can guarantee that this will be a fabulous, intimate evening, limited to only 60 people. Merrijig Kitchen is providing canapés, and there will be wine on arrival.

We know the Bluestone community is interested in hearing from inspiring artists, authors, leaders and those who have chosen to live their life differently, so we intend to stage events that feature just these sorts of people.

If you would like to be part of what Bluestone is all about, then please become a subscriber for $85 for 12 months.

Not only will you have access to our exclusive events, but you will be supporting an independent media voice that is part of a growing, dynamic community in south-west Victoria.

In the meantime, we are thrilled to be hosting an evening with Helen Garner that is sure to both a sell-out, and memorable!
