

A record profit for WRC, so let's leave Levy's alone

Far from falling over, local racing has never been stronger – without any access to Levy's Beach.

May Racing Carnival again has blood on its hands

With the death of yet another racehorse from the W'bool May Racing Carnival, how on earth can we support jumps racing?

Hi Tony, maaaaaate: the ties between the WCC and racing

The local Liberal Party ructions have exposed – again – the deep ties between the W'bool City Council and racing.

All smiles: Dan Tehan's

friends in racing

MP Dan Tehan is a big fan of racing, but more than that, he owns shares in a racehorse with WRC chairman Nick Rule.
