

Win a warming bottle of red

CLOSED FRIDAY MAY 9 – winner Sandra McGuire (and a second draw won by Rachel Peters)

[dropcap style="font-size: 60px; color: #A02F2F;"]F[/dropcap]eel that nip in the air? For Bluestone Magazine, this marks the time of year to enjoy a warming glass of red in front of the fire.

Topsy Tips has this week selected her Top 5 reds for under \$20, but of course she couldn't stop at five, so she added two more just to be on the safe side, including one that is just a little over $20 but is a terrific local wine from Newton's Ridge in South-West Victoria.

You can read the story here and we are inviting our paid subscribers to email us with the name of one wine from the list that they would like to win.

Simply drop us a line at editor@bluestonemagazine.com.au by Friday May 9 and we will announce the winner in our next edition on Monday May 12. Paid subscribers who live outside of South-West Victoria are also encouraged to enter, as we are happy to post the bottle to your door (just be sure to include a mailing address in your email).

This is just another small way of us thanking our paid subscribers because without you, there would be no us.

If you would like to become a member of the Bluestone club, you can subscribe (for just $8 per month or $85 a year), by simply clicking here.

The winners of this competition were Sandra Maguire (Newton's Ridge Shiraz), and Rachel Peters (Saint Clair Pinot Noir).
