

Win a $600 Jon Dixon sculpture

CLOSED – Winner, Peta Caldwell

[dropcap style="font-size: 60px; color: #A5CECD;"] A
[/dropcap]ward-winning sculptor Jon Dixon has very generously donated one of his work's valued at $600 for us to give away to one lucky paid subscriber to Bluestone Magazine.

At the end of our interview with Jon (you can read our story here), he disappeared into his studio and emerged with a lovely piece that he insisted we offer as a prize to our readers.

The female torso is carved from limestone and stands 42cm tall.

In donating this piece, Jon wanted us to receive the value of the prize in new paid subscriptions as his way of supporting what we do and to help us reach our goal of 200 paid subscribers.

So, the first seven people to take out a paid subscription – either monthly or yearly – will be automatically included in the draw.

You can subscribe here.

If you are already a paying subscriber – either monthly or yearly – you can enter the draw by simply dropping us an email to editor@bluestonemagazine.com.au

We will draw the winner* once we have reached the goal of seven new paid subscribers. What a perfect time to sign on to Bluestone!

Thankyou, Jon, for such a wonderful donation.

[box] * The winner will be announced here and also on our Facebook page, plus we will contact you personally. Please note the sculpture can be delivered to a Warrnambool address only, as we are unable to post such a heavy item! If you live more than 20km from Warrnambool, you will need to arrange collection.
